Practice Profile

Alice completed her pupillage and joined chambers in October 2024.

Alice is instructed in both criminal and regulatory matters. Her pragmatic and empathetic approach has made her very popular with instructing solicitors.

Alice is instructed on both crown court and magistrate court matters, as well as regulatory substantive hearings.

Prior to commencing pupillage, Alice worked as a hearings coordinator at the Nursing and Midwifery Council, working closely alongside panels, legal assessors, representatives and registrants to assist the administration of a fair hearing. Part of this role included independently drafting panel decisions.

Before this, Alice worked as a paralegal in several law firms in the North West, assisting solicitors and partners on a variety of matters, including civil and criminal litigation.

Alice has volunteered at her university law clinic, assisting on housing and employment claims, as well as with the Yorkshire Tribunal Advocacy Project in respect of Personal Independence Payment appeal claims.
